

Dear Sir or Mam,
Please consider the best interests of the general public and not the NAB in promoting a true free enterprise system in regards to allowing other providers of traffic and weather information in local areas.

Clear Channel should not be allowed to monopolize the communications of the American public. The freedom to allow for competitive broadcasts is a healthy part of our society and should not be bent to profit a relatively small number of individuals.

Sincerely,
Tim Cowan